Testimonial Tendered Miss Caroline Black and Andrew Jackson

IS ATTENDED BY 55

Wm. Grun, Pres't of Teachers' Ass'n, Serves as Toastmaster

TULLYTOWN, Nov. 18—Two who have taught in Bristol township public schools for lengthy periods of time, and who have retired from active duty, were accorded a testimonial dinner last evening by members of Bristol Township Teachers Association. The guests of honor on this auspicious occasion at Penns Manor Club were Miss Caroline Black and Andrew Jackson.

Covers were arranged for 55 in the main dining room of the club house, as faculty members feted two who had long had the interests of girls and boys of the district at heart.

William Grun, president of the teachers association, who served in the capacity of toastmaster, called upon Walter Miller, supervising principal of the township. Mr. Miller told of Miss Black, a native of Harrisburg, first teaching in 1892. A graduate of Bloomsburg Normal School, she re-entered the teaching profession in 1920 at Newportville, and until her official retirement a few years ago had taught in Bristol township schools for that period of time. Later she served as a substitute teacher in the township, her last post being at Newportville, the same township school in which she assumed duties in this area in 1920.

Birthplace of Mr. Jackson was mentioned by Mr. Miller as being at New Buffalo, Perry County. From 1904 until 1911 he was engaged in teaching, then entered Shippensburg Normal School. His first position in Bristol township was assumed in 1931, he being engaged as supervising principal in that district until this year when he officially retired due to ill health. "Mr. Jackson saw the growth of the junior high school from a piece of barren land until its present condition as a certified junior high school," remarked principal Miller.

He continued: "We have gathered to honor Miss Black and Mr. Jackson, who have been our friends for long while. These two have served the people of Bristol township very well. Both have been in-

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

There can be no four-power talks on Germany as long as the Soviet blockade of Berlin continues, the United States, France and Britain declared yesterday. In notes rejecting a proposal made by United Nations Secretary General Lie and Assembly President Evatt, the three nations said the matter must be decided by the Security Council because Russia's attempts to drive them out of Berlin was a threat to peace. The three powers began a study of a suggestion submitted on behalf of the six Council members not involved in the dispute.

The Russians moved to tighten their hold in Germany by ordering new identity cards for all residents of the Soviet zone and Berlin.

Defense Secretary Forrestal said he was heartened by the progress on defense plans of the Western European Union and the success of the Marshall Plan. He disclosed that Canadian and American planes and weapons were being standardized and that he would confer in Key West with President Truman today on European rearming.

The American-British policy on Germany and the Western European Union were denounced by Charles de Gaulle, who berated the French Government for not resisting both. He called the decision to

CROYDON MAN MARKS 30 YEARS OF SERVICE

Doran Edwards Presented With Insert For Plaque

BORN IN NORWAY

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18—The last three decades have been busy and interesting for Doran Edwards, of Cedar avenue, Croydon, who recently observed the 30th anniversary of his employment with Leeds & Northrup Company, Germantown manufacturer of electrical measuring instruments, automatic controls, and heat-treating furnaces.

The official part of the observance took place Friday, November 5, when Charles S. Redding, president of the firm, presented to Mr. Edwards a 30-year insert for the silver plaque given to him on his 25th anniversary with the company.

Born in Norway in 1901, Mr. Edwards came to this country with his family at the age of 17, and on November 5, 1918, entered the employ of Leeds & Northrup, working on screw machines in the tool department. Since 1929 he has been a machinist in the parts department, working on the repair and maintenance of screw machines, punch presses, and other machine tools.

Mr. Edwards' early education was in Norway, but after joining Leeds & Northrup he enrolled in evening classes at Northeast High School, studying English, mathematics, geometry, and the reading of blueprints. He also completed a correspondence course in mechanical drawing.

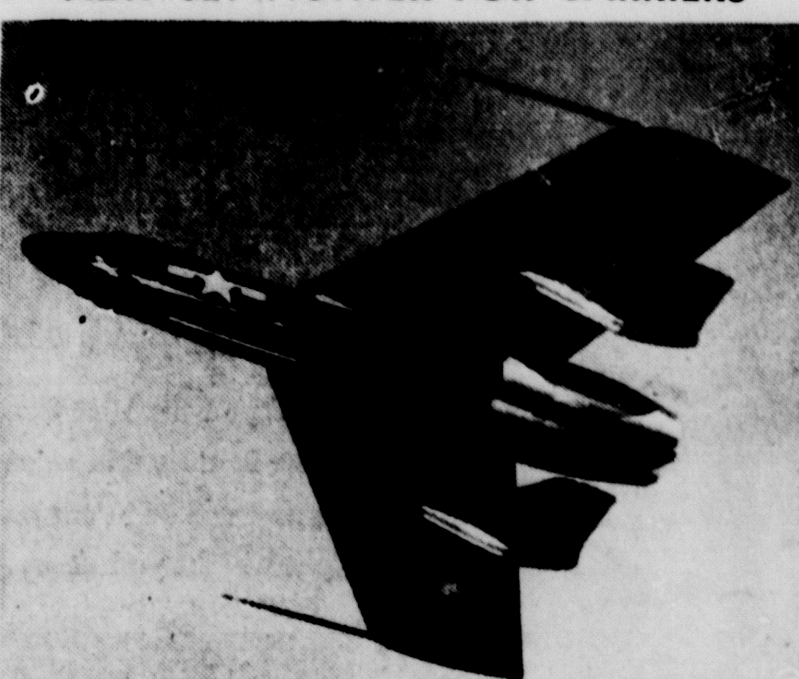

Among his activities in the Leeds & Northrup organization are membership in the L&N Co-operative Association, including two terms on the Council, and past membership in the Athletic Association. Last year he was one of the stars of the company bowling team. His other athletic activities include many years of soccer with the Lighthouse Boys' Club, where he is now a member of the Old Timers' group.

Mr. Edwards is a trustee of the Wilkinson Memorial Methodist Church in Croydon, where he sings tenor in the choir. In fact, he has made singing one of his hobbies, having sung with the Norwegian Singing Society and other choral groups in and about Philadelphia. He is a former member of the Sons of Norway of Philadelphia.

He has been active in Boy Scout work in his home community and is chairman of the committee of Troop No. 69 in Croydon.

Mr. Edwards was married in 1931 to the former Mary Sorensen, of Perth Amboy, N. J. With their three children, Doran, Mae, and Alan, they have made their home in Croydon for the last 15 years.

TYPES AND VARIETIES OF CYCLES DISCUSSED

Thomas E. Coe, Pres't of Langhorne Bank, Is Kiwanis Speaker

CHARTS EXHIBITED

PENNDREL, Nov. 18—Bucks County Lincoln Highway Kiwanis Club heard Thomas E. Coe give an informative talk on business conditions and prospects for 1949 at its dinner meeting, Tuesday evening, at the Royal Gardens, Bensalem township.

The following guests were introduced to the club by John A. A. Crowley: Walter Weir, president and vice-president, respectively, of Langhorne P. T. A.; Mr. McLaughlin, of the Stephen Girard Lions Club; and Mr. Cook.

The birthday anniversaries of John Nibling and John A. A. Crowley were acknowledged with the group singing "Happy Birthday." William Palmer, who was in charge of the program for the evening, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Coe, president of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Co., Langhorne. Mr. Coe said that "in order for us to approach the subject of our national economic conditions and business outlook for the future, we must make a study of business cycles. Do cycles have any merit?"

The value of cycles was discussed in the fishing industry and in epidemics as related by insurance companies. According to Mr. Coe, there is a great deal of merit in the study of cycles as regards the economic picture. He exhibited charts to show the relative effect of cycles stating "everything in life is moving in cycles." Various cycles were considered, and the 54 year cycle was discussed. The 18 year cycle showed the real estate trend; the nine year cycle was a study of security prices. It was noticed that following a peak in real estate, two to four years later, a financial crash invariably followed. There is also the 41 month cycle which "plays an important part in the stock prices and business in general."

Following Mr. Coe's talk a question and answer session ensued, and many problems were discussed. Paul Sauerby announced that on Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, at 12:30 noon, a training conference will be held in Norristown for newly-elected officers and directors. A round table discussion will be held at the Royal Gardens on Tuesday evening for those who cannot attend the training session in Norristown.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS TO PRODUCE PLAY

"You Can't Take It With You" To Be Given Two Evenings

FRI., SAT. EVENINGS

By Marcia Van Langen (Editor of Bristol High School Rambler)

Even though "You Can't Take It With You," you can take home the memory of a pleasant evening spent with the Sycamore family in the Bristol high school auditorium on either Friday or Saturday evening of this week. The play is to be produced by the Bristol high school senior class.

At first you may be inclined to believe that the Sycamore household is completely mad, but as the play progresses one realizes that the rest of the world is still madder.

About the story—to begin with Penny Sycamore writes plays. Why? Simply because once a typewriter was delivered to the house by mistake. The fact that none of the plays have ever been completed or published doesn't phase her in the least, and she goes blissfully on her way. Her husband, Paul, and Mr. De Pinna make firecrackers—so called don't be alarmed by any strange noises that may suddenly fill the air.

TREVOISE, Nov. 18—The lifeless body of Frank Sagendorf, Trevoise and Clark avenues, who had been missing since he started on a fishing jaunt Tuesday morning, was found yesterday afternoon in a field on the farm of George Stieber, 1,000 feet east of Bristol road.

Cause of death of Sagendorf, son of the late Frank A. and Mary E. Sagendorf, is listed as coronary thrombosis. He had been subject to heart attacks, it is stated. Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby, Cornwells Heights, was called in the case.

The finding of Sagendorf's body ended a 24-hour search of Iron Creek by rescue units; and of fields in this area, searchers starting out on foot, and an airplane being used in an attempt to "spot" the man from the air.

Shortly before two o'clock yesterday Officer Marks of Langhorne barracks, Pennsylvania state police, came upon the lifeless body of Sagendorf in the field, a short distance from the railroad bridge. His fishing equipment was beside him, and he had apparently been fatally stricken while en route home. He had last been seen alive by passers-by as he fished along Iron Creek Tuesday afternoon.

Sagendorf, who was in his 60th year, is survived by a sister, Miss Abigail P. Sagendorf, with whom he resided. He was a carpenter by trade, and well known in this area. Mr. Sagendorf had resided in this area for 57 years.

Two Borough Officials Address Legion Group

At the regular meeting of Robert W. Bracken Post, No. 382, American Legion, on Tuesday evening, business of interest to Post members and veterans in general was discussed.

Following the meeting, past commander, Charles G. Rathke, president of Bristol Borough Council, gave an interesting talk on the business of borough council. He spoke of the government operation in the early days of Bristol and ended by discussing the present day council.

Mr. Rathke spoke at some length on the duties and operations of the committees of the present borough council. The talk was delivered in the true Rathke fashion and was well received by all present.

Following Mr. Rathke, William H. Fine, Bristol borough tax collector, spoke at length on the operation of the tax collectors' office and the system used to determine the taxes and collection of the same.

He also told about persons in the community who do not pay their taxes and brought out the fact that those who do pay their taxes are paying higher taxes today for the non-payers. However, Mr. Fine said he has installed a new system whereby the habitual non-payers are going to be brought up short in the very near future.

Mr. Fine's address was interesting to all present and was well delivered.

The colored movies of the national convention in Miami were not ready for showing and Commander McCoy stated that they would be ready for the next meeting on Dec. 7th.

THE EMPTY NOOSE

Hitler is believed dead, perhaps by his own hand. Mussolini was killed and his body defiled by the people he betrayed. Tojo of Japan, whose name was linked with theirs as a prime mover of the Axis, still lives. He has not followed the Japanese tradition of hara-kiri for those who fail their emperor.

Now Tojo's sands are running out. After a trial lasting more than two years, he has been sentenced to hang. The shame of hanging may disturb him more than the idea of death itself.

Sentenced to hang with him were Dohara, who plotted the seizure of Manchuria in 1931, and the generals responsible for the rape of Nanking and for the torture and murder of war prisoners and civilians in Burma, Singapore and the Philippines. All still have the right to appeal against the verdict.

One name is missing from the list. People did not always speak of Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo. Sometimes they said Hitler, Mussolini and Hirohito.

Hirohito is still emperor of Japan. His status has changed somewhat, since he rules at the pleasure of the American occupation and has given up some of his prerogatives. But he has not been sentenced to hang as a war criminal. He has not been tried.

There are practical reasons for showing him this mercy. A good case could be made out against it, too. All the world is sure of is that Hitler has vanished and is probably dead. Mussolini is captured and Hirohito is still emperor of Japan by grace of the sun god and the conquering American Army.

NEWS VS. PREDICTIONS

Anticipatory or speculative writing sometimes aggravates the newspaper reader by putting him more in the fog, according to Carl Saunders, editor of the Jackson, Mich., Citizen Patriot. He spoke on a topic that has been in the minds of many persons at a meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association in Chicago.

In recent years there has been a noticeable trend toward anticipatory, speculative or interpretative writing. He who reads the news has everything explained to him from all angles. Formerly newspapers printed the news and left it to the readers to decide whether what happened was good or bad, and to do his own conjecturing and worrying as to the future.

As Mr. Saunders says, many a reader is in a fog as the result of too much news writing that deviates from straight reporting.

Agreeing, J. R. Wiggins of the Washington Post said stories which suggest what is going to happen should not "leave what has happened out of sight." Becoming specific, he said: "In the last election we were all oversold by anticipatory comment and the election results caused national surprise."

RECIPES

A PROVEN MAN - WINNER
Any recipe that comes tagged as a man's favorite has extra drawing appeal. After all, homemakers the world over do most of their best cooking for the men in their lives. So, if a dish is one man's favorite—it might turn into a favorite of your man's, too.

This recipe gives a chance to experiment once on this angle of thinking.

The first thing to do is to prepare your rice. Here is a sure-fire, time-saving method I think you'll like.

Fluffy White Rice

Put one cup rice, one teaspoon salt and two cups of cold water in a two-quart saucepan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more, during which time the water will be absorbed, making the rice deliciously tender. Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never stir rice, but lift rice gently with a fork when testing its consistency.

Jere's Favorite Rice Dish

Three cups hot boiled rice; two cups milk; three tablespoons butter or margarine; three tablespoons flour; one teaspoon salt; dash of red pepper; one cup grated American cheese; one-half cup sliced olives.

Melt butter or margarine in the top of a double boiler or use a heavy saucepan. Blend in the flour until it is a smooth mixture. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly. Keep stirring and cooking until the sauce is as smooth as silk and has thickened.

Take from heat and stir in grated cheese. Stir until the cheese has melted. Add sliced olives.

Put rice in a greased baking dish and pour the sauce over it. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 20 minutes or until the sauce and rice have become in flavor as one.

This will serve four as a main dish and is perfect for a supper or luncheon, rounding out the meal with salad and dessert.

Hickory Nut Icing
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup sour cream
1 cup chopped hickory nut meats
Butter the size of a walnut
Cook the sugar and cream together for a few minutes until it thickens. Add the butter and simmer until the mixture forms a soft ball if dropped into cold water. Remove from stove and cool. Beat until a fudgelike consistency. Mix with the hickory nuts and spread quickly on the cake.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

A MAN may be the family breadwinner but it is generally conceded that a woman, of necessity, is more practical and thrifty. It is perhaps a talent reserved for women because of their daily duties of family shopper and household manager. Every day they meet the challenge of preparing wholesome meals for their families as inexpensively as possible.

To help them accomplish this task, the A & P Service for Home-Makers suggests real Italian spaghetti and meat sauce for Sunday dinner. The preparation is simple, fast, inexpensive and a real treat for lovers of Italian culinary artistry. The important thing to remember is that the flavor is in the sauce, not in the spaghetti.

Place two tablespoons of vegetable shortening, two tablespoons of oil, slice four medium-sized onions and four sections of a garlic clove into a deep saucepan and cook until brown. Then mix with ground chuck steak and allow ingredients to simmer over a small flame. When meat is brown, add one can of tomato puree and season with salt and pepper as desired. Cook for one-half hour, then add one can of tomato paste and allow sauce to cook 30 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Boil spaghetti in separate pot and strain lightly with cold water.

Serve sauce while hot to maintain the mellow flavor, then sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese if desired. A dinner of spaghetti, Italian bread, a fruit dessert and coffee will please the entire family.

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

DOUBLE GIFT! On Christmas morning he's sure to exclaim over a pure wool "Yours Truly" robe, by "Hathor," and then hear him exclaim again over the initial jewelry cuff links in the sleeves! You'll find these clever garments at Snellenburg's, in the Men's Robes Dept. The price is $12.95, and there's a choice of rich maroon or practical navy. The French cuffs, by the way, are so convenient when your man wants to shave, etc. Sizes are small, medium, large. A perfect gift. (3rd fl.)

YOUR TURKEYS for the holidays must, of course, be the best you can buy. Moreover, you want them to be just the right size for your families. I advise you to check with that Chestnut St. Food Store of Snellenburg's. It is specializing in wonderful turkeys for the holidays. It is too early for me to quote prices, but you may be sure that they'll be reasonable for the quality received. Allow two days for delivery. Or you may be interested in the delicious frozen turkeys—those remarkable "Bellville" birds which are so meaty even when small of size. Bellvilles are, except for stuffing, ready for the oven. (1st fl.)

GRAND TOY. For a little girl, a doll-house is a gift supreme. Nothing you could buy her would please her more. She will spend hours in furnishing it, hours more in rearranging it. The Snellenburg Toy Dept. has several delightful doll-houses at reasonable prices. A durable, all-metal house, for example, costs but $4.98. It has six big rooms and a terrace. It has windows and doors that open and close. The attractive house is painted, both inside and out, with brilliant, washable colors. The overall measurements are 28x13x18 1/2 ins. (4th fl.)

SURPRISE! For a mere $5.98 you can give the family a delightful surprise at the Christmas breakfast or luncheon table, by setting it with holly-red, clear glass dishes! The set may be used for a company supper, too, as both plates and cups are large enough to please even the men! The lines of the pieces are plain and lovely, a perfect foil for the glowing color. There are actually fifty pieces—serving six! Snellenburg's China & Glassware Dept. (3rd floor.)

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY PARADE

By Max Factor, Jr.

(Famous make-up advisor to the screen stars now writing for INS). HOLLYWOOD. — (INS) — Development and perfection of foundation make-up during the past few years has led many women to the mistaken conclusion that they don't need to powder their faces any more. The result has been that powdering is showing signs of becoming a lost art.

This fact has become particularly apparent since the perfection of the cream-stick form of foundation make-up. Many who note the smooth complexion finish which such a make-up provides see no reason to augment it with face powder. Such an idea is definitely a glamour mistake. There is no application of foundation make-up which can't be made more attractive with an expertly applied face-powder finish.

There is a definite technique involved in the correct and most glamorously effective application of face powder — and it is:

Start powdering at the lower part of the cheeks. Then pat and blend the powder of this original application toward the center of the face. Form the habit of powdering the nose last. Very often if the nose is powdered first — as it is by so many women — there is too heavy an application on this facial feature. This over-application will be more obvious on the nose than anywhere else.

After the face has been fully and liberally powdered, press the powder into the little skin lines which are apparent on nearly every face around the eyes, nose, mouth and chin. In order to accomplish this surely and effectively, stretch these tiny complexion creases open with the fingertips while the powder is being applied.

Face powder should be applied with a puff, but a powder brush should be used to provide its final smooth finish. Surplus powder should be brushed away with a light stroke. This will clear all lines at the eyes, nose, mouth, and chin.

Do not work on the principle that if you apply powder sparingly enough there need not be a surplus to brush away. Face powder is the one make-up material which should be applied so liberally in the first place that there is at least a slight surplus apparent. In no other way can you be sure that your appearance isn't flawed by small unpowdered areas.

Be sure your powder puff is clean and really puffy. A powder puff which is used so long that it has become slick and smooth will not apply powder as it should be applied. Either use small, inexpensive puffs and throw them away and replace them with new ones when need for this becomes apparent, or have two or three high quality puffs which can be laundered and made as good as new.

Don't overlook the glamour value of observing the principle of color harmony in selecting your face powder tint. There is one shade of face powder which will flatter your appearance more than any other. Be sure to determine this shade, or have it determined for you by an expert.

Marines had been sent to the Navy's Tsingtao base on the Shantung Peninsula. Britain was concerned over the effect on her Asiatic interests of Communist success in China. There was a lull in the fighting, with indications of a Communist withdrawal east of Suichow.

Republicans in the new Congress will accept amendments to the Taft-Hartley Law, it was said, but will fight repeal. Vice-President-elect Barkley predicted repeal, and also enactment of at least part of the Truman civil rights program. The AFL decided to put its political activities on a permanent basis reaching down to every local.

RECIPES

JELLY PRESERVES USED FOR NEW CABBAGE DISHES

This is the season when crisp, firm heads of cabbage come on the market in plentiful supply and at a very reasonable price. To some folks that means plenty of their favorite cabbage salad and others will have a yen for cooked cabbage.

Here are two recipes to give a new and different flavor touch to two old favorites, cabbage salad and red cabbage. The "secret ingredients" are preserves and jelly which are also in plentiful supply at your grocers and reasonable in price.

"Pineapple Slaw" is no work at all to fix. Combine one-third cup of pineapple preserves. Add a bit of cream to bring it to the desired consistency. Then combine this dressing with three cups of shredded cabbage and your Pineapple Slaw is all ready for eating and enjoying.

Cabbage lovers will find this "Red Cabbage Special" a colorful treat. To make it you'll need:

- 1 small head red cabbage
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1½ cups thinly sliced apple
- ½ cup water
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup grape jelly

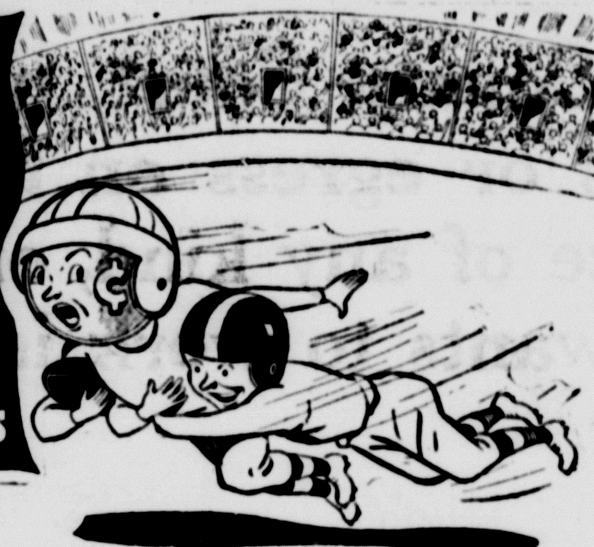

Remove wilted-leaves from the head of cabbage and shred. Rinse in cold running water. Now combine the shredded cabbage with the onion, apple, water, vinegar, butter or margarine, salt and grape jelly. Cook slowly in a covered pan until tender. Serves four.

Special Short Ribs

Short ribs of beef are wonderful when cooked with tomato pulp! Add also green pepper and garlic — and look for delicious flavor in the final result

Here's a Hearty Main Dish
BAKED BEAN PIE

Mingled bean and catsup flavor make this pie a favorite. It is easy on the budget and easy to prepare.

SNAPPY weather outings, like football games or leaf-raking sessions, give you a promise your diners will be hungry. It takes hearty food to satisfy a man when he has spent hours outdoors, food like Baked Bean Pie.

A main dish that's easy to prepare for family dinners or company suppers, Baked Bean Pie is typically American. It pleases all outdoorsmen and hard workers.

It is economical. It takes the place of meat for the meal. It's so tasty that you will have calls for it again and again. Try serving it with asparagus soup, crisp celery and carrot strips, sweet pickles, coconut blanc mange, milk and steaming hot coffee.

Baked Bean Pie

1½ pound cans of pork and beans (about 2½ cups)
¼ cup catsup, mixed with 2 tablespoons water
Pastry for 2-crust 9" pie
Heat oven to 450° (hot oven). Mix water with catsup. Line 9" pie plate with plain pastry. Add pork and beans; pour catsup mixture evenly over beans. Make lattice crust for top of pie. Bake at 450° 10 minutes to set crust, then at 350° (moderate oven) until done, about 25 minutes. Serves 6.
For variation, try combining wieners with pork and beans in the pie in this proportion: 1 pound can pork and beans, 1 cup diced wieners (about 4 medium wieners); ¼ cup catsup mixed with 2 tablespoons water and pastry for 2-crust 9" pie.

At the same time Frank A. Pingle, Morrisville, was contacted, and an airplane took off in hope that if Sagendorf had been stricken ill while crossing some fields he might easily be "spotted."

Early yesterday morning descriptions of Sagendorf were given out by authorities in hopes of locating him.

There Will Be Plenty of Turkey for Holidays

HARRISBURG, Nov. 18.—(INS)—There will be turkey aplenty for Thanksgiving and Christmas tables in Pennsylvania.

The State Agriculture Department reported that "large supplies" of turkeys have been frozen and supplies on hand will be sufficient to meet demands, despite a four per cent decline in production.

Turkey growers produced an estimated 1,264,000 birds this year, the Department said.

Many farmers marketed turkeys early this fall due to the high cost of feed, but others are holding their flocks off the market for later demand.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Charles Weller
Pastor
Bristol Methodist Church

We are grateful today, our Father, for the revelations of Thyself. Thou art unseen, yet clearly revealed in the things that are seen. In the harvest we see Thy hand outstretched in love that provides. In the shining sun that is dimly perceived with the human eye, we catch a glimpse of a power and wisdom which baffles human understanding. In a mother's love and the face of a little child, we perceive a tenderness greater by far than our human compassion. Thou art the author of all that we can see and of much more. Truly we stand in awe, in fear, in love.

land, N. J., visiting Mrs. Barr's sister, Mrs. Mary Bailey.

Roy Williams, Bristol Heights, spent Sunday visiting Oscar Tomlinson at Madison, N. J.

Mrs. Harry Force, Otter street, entertained members of her card club on Thursday evening. On Sunday the group enjoyed a motor trip to Quakertown and Allentown and had dinner at the latter place.

A daughter was born Tuesday evening in Harriman Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ruskak, Bristol Terrace II.

An operation was performed upon Mrs. Anna Losito, of Burlington, N. J., in Harriman Hospital on Tuesday.

Supper at six o'clock was under supervision of Wild Rose Lodge.

The initiation and degree work in the evening was by Lily Lodge, there being one candidate for membership from Bristol. ### Buick Introduces New Models of Cars For 1949

FLINT, Mich., Nov. 18 — Buick yesterday introduced its "new look" for 1949.

Its new, distinctive styling is highlighted by flowing full-length fenders, a lower, wider grille, full-vision curved windshield and rear window and functional, chrome-rimmed "venti-ports" on front fenders for identification and cooling purposes.

Buick's 11 new models include nine completely re-styled Super and Roadmaster cars. They are lower, wider and roomier with greatly improved visibility through use of 22 1/2 per cent more glass in sedan models.

A 3-inch reduction in wheelbase of the Super and Roadmaster models permits a proportionate cut in overall length to facilitate parking and storage. Although the cars are shorter, there is more room for passengers and luggage.

A new addition to Buick's 1949 Roadmaster line is the two-door, six passenger "Riviera," a solid top custom coupe which offers the graceful lines of a convertible, more extensive glass area and a sturdy, all-steel, non-lowering top. It will be placed in production in late spring, 1949.

Public display of 1949 Buick models will begin Nov. 26 in dealer showrooms throughout the country.

TENNIS TESTIMONIAL

MELBOURNE. — (INS) — A testimonial praising the sportsmanship of the 1948 Australian Davis Cup team recently was shown to the Council of the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia. The testimonial was presented to Adrian Gullist, Australian Davis Cup captain and manager, by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association after America had won the cup. Chairman, Mr. Henry Pitt, said the testimonial was a fitting American answer to Australian press criticism of the Davis Cup Team. No previous Davis Cup manager had received such a testimonial.

Tailored to Fit

If ever a bread was tailored to fit a meat, big round sandwich buns are suited to serve with slices of bologna. A good sandwich for lunch boxes consists of a slice of bologna in a sandwich bun with slices of sweet or dill pickle for accent.

NEW YULE GREETINGS ARE VERY EXCITING

Have A Pageant-Like, Theatrical Air About Them

DESIGNS TELL STORY

The new Yuletide greetings are exciting as a stage designer's crayon sketches for a gigantic Christmas play.

There's a pageant-like, theatrical air to the 1948 Christmas cards as they re-create the magnificent scenes of our centuries-old Yuletide traditions.

The emphasis in this season's cards is on story-telling designs costumed in bold and vivid colors, their drama enhanced by impressionistic lighting effects. One typical and striking card portrays the gaunt, awed faces of two ragged shepherds blanched by the blinding illumination from the heavens on that first Christmas Eve.

Even the modern scenes bring to life moments of Yuletide drama—Santa pulling on his boots at midnight... the first candlelight on sparkling Christmas tree ornaments... the astonished, ecstatic smile of a child on Christmas morning...

But while this season's Christmas cards gain a delightful freshness from the new art style, their themes remain staunchly traditional. This year's most popular designs are those portraying familiar and well-loved Yuletide symbols—"Candles, holly, and mistletoe; Christmas trees and lots of snow," as one card rhymes it.

"These themes are favorites because they still express the average American's conception of the ideal Christmas," observes the National Association of Greeting Card Publishers. "However simple his Christmas card may appear, these universal symbols add to his holiday greeting a sense of all the colorful Christmastime tradition and good will of centuries."

There are carollers in modern dress on a number of this year's Christmas cards. And all the women have the long-skirted "New Look" at last—it's 15 months from designer's easel to mail box, and many of the 1947 Christmas cards had already been printed when hemlines started plunging.

More religious designs are available than in several years. The Madonnas and Nativity scenes are especially gentle and appealing. One unusual card consists of an illuminated map of the ancient Holy Land on crackling parchment. Another particularly lovely greeting pictures the Holy Family on its lonely flight into Egypt, midway in a vast desert against a star-speckled sky.

Even the floral cards have a dramatic air, with poinsettia flaming against a solid-gold background. Christmas roses framed in ebony, and mistletoe—Druid emblem of purity—with its white berries outlined against a gigantic bow of red ribbon.

Realistic and novel effects are achieved on many of this season's cards by employing bits of cloth and other actual materials. Santa has a beard of wispy white feathers, there's a cotton batting tassel on his cap, and tiny plastic bells dangle from the holly wreath on the door.

Those playful cherubs, so popular in the past few years, are up to a dozen new tricks. One pair is sawing up candy canes for "short and sweet" Christmas greetings. And there's an angelic Scotch lassie with plaid wings, busily knitting a pair of ski socks on a cloud.

Gay humor sparkles in many of the verses. If you happen to be the baby-faced, lisping type, try sending this greeting—

Some say SANTA'S just a MYTH—I don't believe that's true.
Because I bet this Christmas Day He won't be MITH-in' you!
Not all this year's Christmas card snowmen are grinning out happily from under black silk toppers. One shivering snowman hugs his hot-water bottle and chatters—

Snow Men melt—
Good wishes never...
Merry Christmas

Now and forever!
You'd best be making your selection soon, because it is estimated that about 1,500,000,000 Christmas cards will be exchanged in the U. S. this season, equalling last year's all-time record. The Post Office Department has announced that Christmas cards for out-of-state delivery should be deposited by December 19, and cards for local delivery at least a week before Christmas. They may be marked, "Do Not Open Before Christmas."

MEN OF MERIT

When Dr. Arthur Holly Compton was a boy in his home town of Wooster, Ohio, he built a glider that would fly, and he acquired a telescope, a camera, and an astronomical clock with which he took pictures of Halley's comet. This was significant, but it did not reveal to his parents that their son later was to win the 1927 Nobel prize for contributions in physics, and dozens of other honors from his own and foreign countries for his extensive scientific achievements—including his important connection with the "Manhattan Project." The work of this leader took him to all parts of the world and resulted in numerous important discoveries in scientific fields. He has been equally active in civic organizations. Yet he also is a "Man of Merit" socially—a very human fellow who loves to play the banjo and join the family in song around the piano. Dr. Compton is widely known and highly esteemed as the present Chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

How she must envy the octopus—that avid shopper who grabs up armfuls of merchandise from the department store counter, when she intends to purchase but one item.

In a 60-year-old newspaper we find this forthright threat by a Mrs. O. Hammer, who didn't fool: "I have previously warned the saloon men not to sell my husband liquor. If you don't stop it I will not only prosecute you, but break some of your necks." We can believe that each grog-shop operator was particularly worried over the possibility of having some of his necks broken.

Remember while driving that sometimes you are a pedestrian.

ISLAND Witchery: For this summer dress of Celanese pale pink crepe, Margaret Newman captures the spirit of Hawaii with a matching fabric lei of flowers, but confines the native quality of her dress to its low-cut bare-back top for sunning. The separate high-line jacket with its interesting shoulder line complements the draped skirt for more formal occasions. Modeled by Betty Van Haver.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By Jack Ward
(INS Penna. Farm Editor)
ARRISBURG, Nov. 18 — The production of hybrid corn exceeded all records in Pennsylvania during 1948.

In producing the state's bumper 29,000 corn crop, 84 per cent of field corn grown was from hybrid seed, according to the State Agriculture Department.

indicating further increases in use of hybrid seed, the year's age of hybrid field corn inspected for seed certification was the best in the state's history, indicating further increases in use.

To assure growers of obtaining best seed, the department's bureau of plant industry inspectors all entered by growers for state certification during the growing season. Growers whose product met the rigid requirements may grain as state certified seed.

In year there were 2655 acres of hybrid seed corn entered for inspection for certification, compared 1366 acres a year ago.

total of 1862 acres passed all tests, nearly 600 more than 1947, the previous year.

In 1948 hybrid seed crop was on by 17 producers in 10 counties, the department said.

Adding the 17 varieties of hybrid seed this year was U. S. 13, tied on 455 acres. Close behind Ohio K24 (CQ), with 427 acres.

oved. In third place was Ohio (CQ), approved 211 acres.

nsylvania State College's herd of purebred Holstein dairy cattle has been awarded the progressive breeder's certificate by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America for the fourth year.

The Penn State herd, one of 10 singled out in the state, includes 81 animals. Last year it averaged 14,820 pounds of milk and 541 pounds of butterfat per cow.

The success of Miles Hollenbach, of Berks County, can be cited as a goal for 4-H Club members.

Hollenbach, starting from a calf in his 4-H Club project in 1931, has built his Guernsey herd to more than 40 females.

The project calf, Riveredge Itchen May Belle, was purchased by Hollenbach in October, 1931. Less than two years later she gave birth to her first calf, a heifer. She has freshened every year since then and has had a total of 19 heifer and five bull calves.

In production, Belle has a lifetime record of more than 100,000 pounds of milk and more than 5000 pounds of butterfat.

When Dr. Arthur H. Compton was a boy in his home town of Wooster, Ohio, he built a glider that would fly, and he acquired a telescope, a camera, and an astronomical clock, with which he took pictures of Halley's comet. This was significant, but it did not reveal to his parents that their son later was to win the 1927 Nobel prize for contributions in physics, and dozens of other honors from his own and foreign countries for his extensive scientific achievements—including his important connection with the "Manhattan Project." The work of this leader took him to all parts of the world and resulted in numerous important discoveries in scientific fields. He has been equally active in civic organizations. Yet he also is a "Man of Merit" socially—a very human fellow who loves to play the banjo and join the family in song around the piano. Dr. Compton is widely known and highly esteemed as the present Chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

How she must envy the octopus—that avid shopper who grabs up armfuls of merchandise from the department store counter, when she intends to purchase but one item.

In a 60-year-old newspaper we find this forthright threat by a Mrs. O. Hammer, who didn't fool: "I have previously warned the saloon men not to sell my husband liquor. If you don't stop it I will not only prosecute you, but break some of your necks." We can believe that each grog-shop operator was particularly worried over the possibility of having some of his necks broken.

Remember while driving that sometimes you are a pedestrian.

ISLAND Witchery: For this summer dress of Celanese pale pink crepe, Margaret Newman captures the spirit of Hawaii with a matching fabric lei of flowers, but confines the native quality of her dress to its low-cut bare-back top for sunning. The separate high-line jacket with its interesting shoulder line complements the draped skirt for more formal occasions. Modeled by Betty Van Haver.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By Jack Ward
(INS Penna. Farm Editor)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 18 — The production of hybrid corn exceeded all records in Pennsylvania during 1948.

In producing the state's bumper 329,900 corn crop, 84 per cent of field corn grown was from hybrid seed, according to the State Agriculture Department.

Indicating further increases in use of hybrid seed, the year's average of hybrid corn inspected for seed certification was the best in the state's history, indicating further increases in use.

To assure growers of obtaining best seed, the department's bureau of plant industry inspectors all inspected during the growing season. Growers whose products the rigid requirements may or grain as state certified seed.

This year there were 2655 acres hybrid seed corn entered for inspection for certification, compared with 1366 acres a year ago. A total of 1862 acres passed all field tests, nearly 600 more than 1947, the previous year.

The 1948 hybrid seed crop was won by 17 producers in 10 counties, the department said.

Leading the 17 varieties of hybrid seed this year was U. S. 12, certified on 455 acres. Close behind was Ohio K24 (CQ), with 427 acres approved. In third place was Ohio 5 (CQ), approved 211 acres.

Pennsylvania State College's herd

of purebred Holstein dairy cattle has been awarded the progressive breeder's certificate by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America for the fourth year.

The Penn State herd, one of 10 singled out in the state, includes 81 animals. Last year it averaged 14,830 pounds of milk and 541 pounds of butterfat per cow.

The success of Miles Hollenbach, of Berks County, can be cited as a goal for 4-H Club members.

Hollenbach, starting from a calf in his 4-H Club project in 1931, has built his Guernsey herd to more than 40 females.

The project calf, Riveredge Itchen May Belle, was purchased by Hollenbach in October, 1931. Less than two years later she gave birth to her first calf, a heifer. She has freshened every year since then and has had a total of 10 heifer and five bull calves.

In production, Belle has a lifetime record of more than 100,000 pounds of milk and more than 5000 pounds of butterfat.

PENNA. HAS OUTLETS TO 3 "WATER-WAYS"

Ports Make Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico, St. Lawrence Accessible

A GREAT ADVANTAGE

(Prepared for The Courier by the State Planning Board, Department of Commerce.)

One of the greatest advantages of Pennsylvania's geographic location is the fact that it is the only state with outlets from its own ports to the Atlantic, the Gulf of Mexico, and the St. Lawrence.

The port of Erie connects the State by water with Canada, the Great Lakes, and the St. Lawrence. The port of Pittsburgh provides access to the Mississippi River Basin and the Caribbean Sea. The ports of Philadelphia and Chester are our state's outlets to the Atlantic.

The Summary of Foreign Commerce, issued by the Foreign Trade Division of the Bureau of the Census, reports that for the first six months of 1948 the exports and imports of the Philadelphia port district totaled $436,289,242, second only to New York on the Atlantic Coast, and exceeding the third Atlantic port by more than $150,000,000. The imports of Philadelphia in 1948, totaling $252,662,000, were second in the United States.

The list of monthly sailings from the Philadelphia docks includes departures for almost every important port of entry in the world. Inter-coastal sailings connect the city with Florida, Texas, and the Pacific Coast.

The total tonnage handled by the Philadelphia port district, as computed by the United States Army Engineers, for the year 1946 was 59,906,086—its greatest record during any year of either war or peace. This total represented the largest actual gain in tonnage made by any American port during the first year of peace.

Because of its location at one of America's leading manufacturing centers, and its peculiar advantages for railway shipment into the interior of our State and Nation, it seems evident that Pennsylvania's largest seaport has entered upon a new cycle of growth. Improvements now being undertaken in the dredging of the Delaware and the lower Schuylkill by the United States Army will greatly aid this development. So, too, will the State's stream clearance program which is actively underway.

Much of the state's future progress depends on the full use of the great natural advantages provided to our business and industry by these outlets to the channels of world trade, the State Planning Board of the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce points out.

No Freedom From Want

—by—
SAMUEL B. PETTENGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

Every year the world's population increases by 20,000,000. Every decade the increase would fill an empty United States up to its present 145,000,000 with fifty-five millions to spare.

There are more people in Europe than before the war, despite its red light. But there is no empty New World to which they can go. Or, if there were empty, fertile space to which they could migrate, it would not long relieve Europe's population pressures, for Europe would continue to breed as it has done since the discovery of the New World.

There are about 2,500,000,000 people on the earth. Allowing two and one-half acres of tillable land per person as a minimum for food, clothing, etc., the world has 900,000,000 more people than it can well take care of. Yet, by the end of the century, it will have an additional 600,000,000 demanding to be "free room want," demanding food, housing, fuel oil, iron, coal, copper, and atom bombs!

What do the endless debates in the United Nations contribute to his problem? They talk about the conquest of disease, public health, cancer research, etc., but the present conquests of plagues, diseases of infancy, death by childbirth, poor sanitation, etc., have left increasing populations pressing against decreasing natural resources.

If, today, medical science reduced the death rate in India to the present death rate in the United States, but India's birth rate continued as it is, India could fill five worlds as big as this planet, and as overcrowded as it already is, in a single century.

When President Roosevelt said that the dream of "freedom from want" is not a distant goal, but something realizable in our generation, he was talking nonsense.

In the face of this tremendous population problem, the Berlin "air-lift," the movement of a few D.P.'s from one plate to another, the talk of One World, an International Bill of Rights, and the angry shoutings of the peace-loving delegates pale into insignificance.

More peace treaties. More pieces of paper. Yet, as Colonel Cushing of the Army War College points out, history records 8,000 treaties already. On the average, they were faithfully observed for two years! As an example of the pitting propaganda of peace, prosperity and plenty, I quote the Office of War Information (misinformation): "Beyond any doubt, men now possess the technical ability to produce in great abundance enough for everyone." Every serious student of the world's population problem knows that is as false as a $7 bill.

Dr. Thomas Parran, former Surgeon General of our Public Health Service, says: "The greatest possible increase in food production will not for decades be enough to meet the minimum adequate diet." The Department of Agriculture reports that, after making allowance for increase of population, food production in calories, per capita, is 12% less than pre-war.

The Pan-American Union says that Latin America is already a "vanishing continent." It is vanishing because its land is being washed into the sea, its fertility exhausted, its resources consumed far beyond the power of synthetic laboratories to replace. And so everywhere! Our Soil Conservation Service tells us that three billion tons of soil are wasted or blown away each year.

How do you get freedom from want and war out of these facts? As Walter B. Pitkin says, unless limitation of population growth can be brought about "this immense war just finished will have been fought in vain." An honest facing-up to the facts requires a re-appraisal of America's foreign policy.

NEW WORDS FOUND
EACH SEASON IN THE CLOTHING NEWS

By Mrs. Emilie Kerlin Langer
(Assist. Home Ec. Representative)

Each season brings new words in the clothing news. Here are a few, both new and old.

The silhouette is the outline of a fashion figure. Fashions of different periods can be recognized by the silhouette even though no details of the dress can be seen.

The profile silhouette is popular this winter. It has slim front lines, fitted bodice, and back skirt interest or fullness. The effect of this fullness is best seen from a side view of the silhouette.

A basque is a closely fitted bodice, much used in the present silhouette. This bodice often has side front and side back seams, or the fullness may be taken out by darts from the waistline to bust line.

A bertha is a wide collar, deep enough to fall over the shoulders. It frequently is used on a fairly low neck dress.

Crinoline is a fabric of stiffened cotton used to make a full skirt stand out at the hemline. The term is used also to describe any wired or stiffened "cage" to wear under full skirts.

A cummerbund is a broad tight-fitting sash. It is very popular now worn with full skirts and bolero suits.

Degage is a French word used to describe the low, broad neckline now popular on dresses. The neckline is often made to stand away from the figure. A center slit with winged points is a popular variation of this neckline.

Passmenterie is a rich trimming made of braid and beads or embroidery. This is a Victorian trimming now being used on dresses and jackets.

FRUIT OF THE LOOM

THE COLLAR THAT HAS A

THE NEW WEAR-LOOM COLLAR

"GUARANTEED" WHITE SHIRTS

Despite higher costs these days, you can get your money's worth — and here's how: with these Fruit of the Loom whites you get an unconditional guarantee — plus the kind of wear that backs up that guarantee. The new Wear-Loom collar — made of tough, 2-ply yarns, actually outlives the rest of the shirt. It resists fraying, shredding, ripping, and tearing — and that means longer wear for your shirts.

Fruit of the Loom presents this new collar in a sparkling new white shirt. It's tailored of rich fabrics, and styled with unusual fashion-features: a Form-Fitted Shape, and a collar that's designed with rare distinction. Shirts that are worthy of their guarantee—soft, smooth, Sanforized-shrunk—and a rare value!
